

Harold Leow Butterworth

DECEMBER 4, 1945 - SEPTEMBER 29, 2021

Harold Leow Butterworth, of Collierville, Tennessee Died in his home in Collierville, TN (he went peacefully and rejoined the one love of his life, his wife Ann Butterworth, who passed in 2015). He was born, December 4, 1945 in East Orange, New Jersey. He was a 1963 graduate of Chatham, NJ High School.

Harold was preceded by, wife Ann, brother in law, Randall Foster, sister in law, Faye Foster.

Harold is survived by his daughter, Maria Porteous, A niece, nephew, and great nieces and nephews.

Harold was a FedEx MD11 Captain upon retirement, He worked for FedEx for 30 years. He received the FedEx Bravo Zulu recognition for outstanding job performance on August 12th, 1997. Harold was a United States Air Force Veteran, a Vietnam veteran with Honorable discharge. He flew Boeing B-52 Stratofortress and C7 Caribou. Harold was an accomplished Equestrian who loved and owned horses and riding all his life. In 1959 he was awarded the Junior Essex Troop Trophy.

A service celebrating His Life will be held at West Tennessee Veterans Cemetery on Friday, October 29 at 1:00PM.