

Joseph Bernard Callahan Obituary

Callahan, Joseph, Bernard 70, of Phoenix, AZ passed away on June 23rd 2015. Joseph was born in Warren, Ohio May 2nd, 1945, shortly after his family moved to NJ where he attended, & played basketball at Princeton University. He came out west & fell in love with the AZ desert. He was a talented writer & wrote several novels & for the New Times magazine. He was a natural entrepreneur who began & ran a small, successful production company called Small but Mighty Films for many years. He loved music, fishing, & most of all his family. He was an amazing father, a free spirit, and a beautiful soul. He will be forever missed by his loving family, He is survived by his three children, Alyssa, Jesse, & Rachel, his grandchildren, his former wife Karen, & his remaining four brothers and sisters, Pat, Charlotte, Terry & Kathy. Email alytaos@gmail.com for information about services.