

Suzanne D. (Creelman) McGill

Transcribed from The Daily Record (Morristown, New Jersey) · Sun, Aug 26, 2001

MADISON – Suzanne D. (Creelman) McGill died Friday, August 24, 2001, at Morristown Memorial Hospital after a brief illness. She was 57

Born in Maplewood, she lived in Chatham for many years, graduating from High School there in 1963. She subsequently moved to Madison in 1968.

Ms. McGill was one of the first woman members of the Madison Elks and worked there for many years as treasurer of the House Committee.

She was an avid painter, known for her artistic creativeness by family and friends. She enjoyed gardening and indoor plants, her cats, and working on the computer.

Survivors include her children, Christina Keegan and her husband James of Netcong, and Cynthia of Birmingham, Ala.; her siblings, Cindy Bezer and her husband Richard of New Vernon, and William A. Creelman of Berkeley, California and one grandchild, Jordan Jamieson Kyser-McGill.

A funeral service will be held at Wm. A. Bradley & son Funeral Home, 345 Main St. (Rt. 124), Chatham, on Wednesday, August 29 at Noon.

Interment will follow at Fair Mount Cemetery. Friends may call on Tuesday from 6-9 .m. and on Wednesday from 10 a.m.-noon. Those who wish may contribute in her memory to St. Huberts Animal Welfare Center, 575 Woodland Ave., Madison, NJ 07940

For further information, please go to www.bradleyfuneralhome.com.

