

Former Carolyn Rudow Dies After Long Illness

CHATHAM — Funeral services for Mrs. Carolyn Rudow Westfall, who died Wednesday, March 29, at the United States Public Health Service Hospital, Staten Island, after a long illness. Services were held Saturday at William A. Bradley & Son Funeral Home, followed by services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. She was the daughter of Police Chief and Mrs. Richard G. Rudow.

Mrs. Westfall, who was 22 years old, was born in San Diego, Calif., and had lived in Chatham most of her life. She was a graduate of Chatham High School, class of '63.

She is survived by her parents; her husband Daniel T. serving with the United States Coast Guard; an infant daughter, Carolyn; a brother, Richard, and a sister, Miss Nancy Rudow; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Rudow of Chatham.

