

It is with profound sadness that I report the loss of another of our classmates, Karen Thompson-Niles. I will post an obituary when one becomes available.

Carpe diem! 4 weeks ago on vacation in Mexico. Tonight saying goodbye to the love of my life ❤️ (Herb Niles on FaceBook.)

Karen was on vacation in Mexico several weeks ago, went into respiratory distress, and returned home with a diagnosis of lung and (I believe) liver cancer. (John Rumsey)

It is with a heavy heart that I pass on the sad news that Karen has died. I just learned of her death this morning on Herb's Facebook post, where he said, "4 weeks ago on vacation in Mexico. Tonight saying goodbye to the love of my life ❤️." The many condolences below his post confirm that she is really gone. I expect he will notify us in time. It happened so suddenly; I'm sure he and the girls are in shock. (Margie King Sanders)
