

Josh and Betty:

Yes, we are well and keeping busy with various volunteer endeavors as well as family visits. FYI: my mother turned 105 last September and is doing well; I FaceTime with her most mornings as she lives near my sister Lynne in Madison, WI. Our brother Jeff lives in Cheyenne, WY. Us Chatham folks ended up in “W” states! Dale and I also have a far-flung family: one daughter (Dana) and family in Palm Desert, CA, one daughter (Sara) and family in Bozeman, MT, and one daughter (Katy) and family here in the Seattle area. All good. Though it takes effort and arrangement of schedules to all get together, lots of fun when we do.

It’s good to hear from you and nice that you keep in touch even though I live far away and it’s been hard to attend reunions.

All the best to both of you,
Jinny (Fassett) Sewall
